

RUNNERS OF THE YEAR AWARDS

To foster healthy competition among Corpus Christi Roadrunners (CCRR), encourage excellence in running, and help boost participation in CCRR-sponsored races and Fun Runs, the CCRR Board of Directors implements the "Runner Of The Year" (ROTY) Award Program.

Beginning in November, every current Corpus Christi Roadrunners Club member 19 years and older is eligible. When an individual signs up to be a 1st time member of CCRR, they are eligible to participate in the program from the date of membership.

To receive ROTY points for an event you must be a paid up member of the CCRR. The annual enrollment period is November 1, 2010 to December 31, 2010. Only paid up members as of 12-31-2010 will receive points for the Dec. fun run, Turkey chase, and  $\frac{1}{2}$  Marathon events.

SCORING PROCEDURE

CCRRC members will be added to a ROTY data base. Once the results of a race are posted, the person in charge of ROTY will assign the points and enter them in a spreadsheet that will be posted on the CRRS website. If a runner detects a mistake, he/she should contact David Patterson. The webmaster cannot make any corrections.

AWARD CATEGORIES

Awards will be given to the winners of the following categories (5 places):

Male and Female Open (19-39)

Male and Female Masters (40 and Over)

1st-$330, 2nd-$200, 3rd-$150, 4th-$90, and 5th-$60 awards may include gifts, gift certificates, and cash that is equal to the dollar amount. Awards determined by the ROTY committee. Board Members are eligible for awards.

The runner's age at the end of the competition determines which category he/she belongs for awards. Tiebreaker is the number of events participated in during the program.

START AND END OF THE PROGRAM

The program starts on 11/1/2010 and ends on the weekend before the CRRR banquet in October 2011. The awards will be handed to the runners during the Annual CCRRC Banquet in October.

The ROTY program coordinator, David Patterson, will tabulate and give final award standings to the CRRR board for awards distribution at the annual banquet.
